

The latest edition of WCBC's Consulting Engineers Compensation Report has just been released. This comprehensive, industry-specific report has been a trusted resource for over 20 years, providing reliable data on salaries, benefits, and compensation practices across Canadian consulting engineering firms.

To share some of this year's highlights, WCBC has prepared an article outlining key insights from the report. You can read it here: [<https://wcbc.ca/canadian-ce-survey/>]. The full report is also available for purchase and continues to serve as a vital benchmark for firms seeking accurate, Canadian-specific compensation information.

Beyond purchasing, CEA encourages your firm to consider participating in the 2026 edition of the survey. Participation benefits both your organization and the industry overall:

- Contribute to a stronger benchmark that supports fair, competitive, and sustainable compensation practices.
- Receive significant participant discounts when purchasing the report.
  - 15% discount for CEA members
  - 50% discount for participants

The Consulting Engineers of Alberta supports and encourages members to take part in this important initiative. Your participation helps ensure the results capture Alberta market realities while reinforcing the survey's role as the industry's most trusted source.
